

Recognise Christ in you

The Holy Spirit inspired St. Paul to tell: "God willed to make known to them the riches of the glory of his mysterious plan among the Gentile nations; it is Christ in you, your hope in glory" (Col.1.27)

The Spirit of Christ dwells in the heart of everyone who believes in Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world. "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and you and your household will be saved", St. Paul said to the jailer in Macedonia (Acts 16.31). There is no force of changing the culture, creed or religion. "If you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and in your heart you believe that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved" (Rom 10.9)

The title of one of the books of St. Augustine is this: 'Love God and do what you like'. But it has a deeper meaning. When we love a person we will want to do only what that person likes. So Jesus said: "If you love me, obey my commandments"(Jn. 14.15). So loving the Lord means obeying the Commandments. "God's love requires us to keep his commandments"(1 Jn 5.3)

Please listen to the audio 'Recognise Christ in you' in the page Media (with Ukrainian translation).